Let me first of all thank my Gods, for their showers of blessings throughout my research work to complete my ambition successfully.

I thank Dr. Joby Thomas K., my esteemed promoter, for accepting me as a Ph.D student, his warm encouragement, thoughtful guidance, critical comments, and correction of the thesis. I am extending my heartfelt thanks to his family for their acceptance and patience during the discussion I had with him on research work and thesis preparation.

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. P. O. Jenson, Principal, Rev. Fr. Martin Kolambrath, Bursar of the College, all the faculty members of Chemistry Department, especially former Heads of this Department Dr. C. V. Jose, Dr. Joy Anto and the present Head Dr. Babu Joseph and Sri. M. P. Varghese, former lab staff, for the invaluable support and timely help.

I am grateful to Dr. Geetha Parameswaran, retired Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, University of Calicut, for her valuable advice. I am very much thankful to Sr. Mareena, HOD Chemistry, St. Mary's College Thrissur and Sr. Sarupya, Dept. of Biotechnology, Mercy College Palakkad for the facilities they offered to conduct antimicrobial investigations. The advice rendered by Dr. Abraham Joseph, Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, University of Calicut, his student Dr. Sam John, and Dr. Stanely Jacob, Scientist, C-MET, Thrissur helped me a lot in doing the Corrosion inhibition studies successfully.

It is my privilege and pleasure to acknowledge the help and advice I have always received from Mrs. Nimmy Kuriakose, Miss. Reeja, Mrs. Sini, Mr. Prasannakumar, Mr. Aji and Mrs. Drishya. With gratitude I acknowledge the blessings from the faculty members, Dept. of Chemistry, Govt. Engineering College Thrissur, with much pleasure.

My deepest gratitude is due to all my family members, especially to my parents, whose patience, encouragement and co-operation always inspired me to work with dedication, purposefully and in a disciplined manner. I warmly thank and appreciate my wife, for her patience and support during my work and my lovely sweet daughter for her goodwill gestures.

Thanks to my close friends Vinod P Raphael, Dr. Aby Paul and their esteemed families, for the joyful gatherings and all their supports. I pay gratitude and sincere thanks to, Mr. Anoop Thomas & Mr. Sandeep K of IISER Trivandrum and STIC, CUSAT in the analysis of compounds. I also thank Mr. M. I. Pauly who did the entire printing work of my thesis.
