

List of figures

Number	Title	Page no
1.1	Growth Mechanism in Classical Economics	18
1.2	Sample design	25
2.1	State/UT's Share of Scheduled Castes(SC) To Total SC Population of India	34
2.2	Performance of SC students in Higher Secondary examination	45
5.1	Socio-economic domains and indicators used for the study	93
5.2a	Consumption expenditure pattern of rural SC households	105
5.2b	Consumption expenditure pattern of Urban SC households	106
5.3	Debt Position	110
5.4	Distribution based on Source of borrowing	111
5.5	Distribution based on Purpose of borrowing	112
5.6	% Distribution of households according to the system of treatment	118
6.1	Deprivation Domain and Indicators Used for the Present Study	121
6.2	Household preference of the system of treatment	127
6.3	% Distribution based on healthcare quality domain statement of sample households	128
6.4	Whether the quality of life impaired due to poor-health /disability of individuals in sample households?	131
6.5	% distribution of sample population based on Barriers experienced in educational attainment/skill enhancement in sample areas	134
6.6	Various Hurdles faced by Female population in sample areas for employment/skill advancement	135
6.7	% distribution of sample population based on barriers to housing and services	136
6.8	Satisfaction level of living environment of rural sample households	140
6.9	Satisfaction level of living environment of Urban sample household	140