ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This work is the fruit of the past six years of learning in the esteemed institution, St Thomas' College Thrissur. The ambience of the place and the academic freedom in the institution provided the right ingredients for overall development of my personality. I really feel fortunate enough to undergo study in this institute as a doctorate student.

My mentor Dr Anto Thomas C (Associate Professor & Head of the Department), under whose guidance I pursued my research instilled in me to seriously consider the realm of children's picture books as the field of my doctoral study. I am extremely grateful to him for providing resolute guidance, valuable advice, and consistent criticism, which always came with faith and confidence in my abilities during the programme.

I place on record my sincere gratitude to the Principal Dr. Ignatius Antony and the former Principal Dr P O Jenson for the support they rendered at every stage of my research. I am deeply grateful to the members of Doctoral Committee for their valuable suggestions and recommendations that helped me to set my focus clearly.

Words are deserting my thoughts to express my special thanks and gratitude to the entire faculty members of the Department of English. I would like to express my deepest sense of gratitude and indebtedness to them for their help and support.

I feel fortunate to have pleasant and fortunate company of scholars in the Department of English. The affection, selfless torments, care and support I got from all my friends could not be expressed in words.

I express my gratefulness to all my teachers from school to college, for moulding me and giving me a strong foundation of knowledge.

I am extremely thankful to University Grants Commission for providing me financial support for the study as Junior Research Fellowship during the initial phase of my research.

I happily acknowledge the untiring assistance extended by the library staff, office staff and other supporting staff of the college for their help during the period of research work.

My colleagues at the work place imparted a lot of help by sharing professional skills and knowledge. They had given valuable tips that made my research to go unhindered.

I fondly recall, with love, the emotional support, consistent encouragement and inspiration exhibited by my family.

Eventually, I curtsy myself in front of the almighty for showering upon me his divine providence throughout the journey of my life.
