ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research work is the fruitful result of the five-year study conducted on vast subjects like The Chronicles of Narnia and Ayyavazhi. My humble effort in the form of this thesis is only a facet among the multiple possibilities hidden in these fields of study, which are yet to be explored and examined.

I express heartfelt gratitude to my research supervisor Dr K. P. Nanda Kumar who monitored and encouraged me in the path of my research. I am ever grateful to him for providing timely guidance, corrections and criticisms on the subject and methodology of my study. I am indeed blessed to accomplish research under such an experienced mentor who is also a wonderful human being.

I express my sincere gratitude to my research co-supervisor Dr C. S. Biju without whose presence my research would not have been an impossible task. I am always grateful for his valuable instructions and support rendered in absentia of my research supervisor.

My heartfelt gratitude to the Head of the Department of English, Dr Anto Thomas C. for his guidance and support rendered all along my research period. His instructions and insights in the field of Children's Literature have worked as guidelines for the completion of my research work.

I am ever grateful to Dr Francis K. Kakkassey, the former Head of the Department of Zoology for the timely support and help rendered. I am thankful to Dr K. F. Sebastian, the former Head of the Department of English for the help and support provided.

I place on record my sincere gratitude to the Principal Dr Fr K. A. Martin and the former principals Dr P. O. Jenson, Dr Ignatius Antony and Dr Joy K. L. for the support they rendered during every stage of my research. I am thankful to Dr Joby Thomas K., the research co-ordinator for his support and co-operation provided during the tenure of my research. I am indeed grateful to the members of Doctoral Committee for their valuable suggestions and recommendations that helped me to set my focus clearly.

My special thanks and gratitude to the entire faculty members of the Department of English. I would like to express my deepest sense of gratitude and indebtedness to them for their help and support. Special mentions to Dr Syam Sudhakar and Mr Biju M. A. for sharing their valuable insights helpful in the research process. I am ever thankful to Mrs Christeena T. Jose for the care and moral support provided. I am fortunate to have company of my friends, the fellow research scholars especially from the Department of English. Their moral support and insights prove to be valuable experiences of life. Thanks to Dr Sheme Mary P.U., Dr Anu Paul, Dr Soya Joseph, Nimisha K. Jayan and Megha K. Jayadas for their help and support rendered in the submission of my thesis.

I happily acknowledge the untiring assistance extended by the library staff, office staff and other supporting staff of the college for their help during the period of research work. My heartfelt thanks to Mr Sanjo Jose, Librarian, St. Thomas' College for providing inspiration and information valuable for research. I am thankful to all the staff members of CHMK Library, University of Calicut; Public Library, Thrissur and Kerala Sahitya Academy, Thrissur for their co-operation and support.

Heartfelt thanks to Sri Arun Shankar for his instructions and all over support provided. I am greatly thankful to Dr R. Ponnu and Dr G. Patrick for providing the primary resources on Ayyavazhi, without which my research would have been an impossible task. I thankfully remember the support, inspiration and insights provided by Dr Lekshmi R. Nair, Assistant Professor, Government College, Kottayam. I am indeed indebted to Dr Krishnamayi A. the former Head, Department of English, Vimala College, Thrissur for introducing my guide.

Special thanks to Remykrishnan A. V. and Atheetha K. Unni for their selfless support and instructions provided. I am thankful to Dr Latha Nair R., Associate Professor in English, St. Theresa's College, Ernakulam, for the valuable comments and suggestions which provided renewed insights for the study. My thanks to Dr Binoy Kurian Mulayamparambil, Assistant Professor, St. Georges' College, Aruvithura and Dr Laly Eugene, former Head, Department of the English, Bharat Mata College, Ernakulam for sharing their valuable insights useful for my research work. I am indeed thankful to Dr Vishnu Somasundaran, former Hod/ic Humanities, VAST, for sharing valuable insights. I am thankful to Ms Priya V. Balakrishnan for providing valuable resources related to Children's Fantasy.

My heartfelt thanks to Late P Sundaram Swamikal for familiarizing Ayya Vaikundar through the translation of "Uchippathippu" of Arul Nool. I am greatly thankful to Sri A. S. Ahimohanan, the Chairman, Nadar Welfare Society, Sri Vaikunda Raja, Dr Dharmarajani and Sri Balaprajapathi Adigalar, the current spiritual head of Swamithope Pathi; for supporting the research and providing valuable resources related to Ayyavazhi. I am thankful for the support of Sri Velayudhan Nadar and Late Dr Kadavil Chandran for providing their insights and works related to Ayya Vaikundar.

Special thanks to Smt Sarsawathi S. Varrier for familiarizing me with Tamil language and supporting me in the translation of Akhilathirattu Ammanai. I am inexplicably thankful to Sri Jayakrishnan Pindiyath for not only providing valuable research resources and technical nuances, but also for clearing the ambiguities regarding the important dates related to Ayya Vaikundar. My thanks to Smt Girijadevi B. for her translation of verses related to Ayyavazhi.

I am greatly thankful to Sri K.V. Unnikrishnan Vaidyar and Dr R. K. Harikrishnan of "Gurukripa", Peringode for the relentless support rendered. My thanks to Dr K. G. Raveendran, former Medical Director, AVP (Coimbatore) and Abhiram R. for their support. My thanks also to Dr Vishnu Nampoothiri and Dr Sreejith R. Venu, along with all the inmates of Paliyil Madom for their well wishes and support. I express my gratitude and condolences to late H. H. Swami Nirmalananda Giri Maharaj for his endeavour to support my research work.

I express my gratefulness to all my teachers from school to college, for moulding my character and giving me a strong foundation of knowledge and values. I am ever thankful to the inmates and trustees of Atmaprabhalaya Asritha Asramam, Cheroor for their constant support and love. I express endless love and gratitude to my parents who instructed and constructed me, and provided space and inspiration for this endeavour.

All over gratitude and dedication to Srimad Sakthiprabhananda Gurupadar for embodying "The Mirror and the Lamp"
